The Upper Room

AUC Spiritual Conference December 25–28, 2025

About the Theme

The Upper Room was a place where Jesus and the disciples gathered for the Last Supper. It was also the place that the disciples retreated to after Jesus' crucifixion, and in which He appeared to their surprise, to speak peace and comfort to them. After His ascension, it was here that they met once again, to make things right with each other, and to pray for the promised outpouring of the Holy Spirit. This prayer was answered in a powerful way, and the disciples went forth in a movement that reached the whole world.

Today we wait for the fulfilment of the same promise—the gift of the Holy Spirit. We must again gather in our own “upper room”—for the same work of humility, confession, prayer and desire to complete the gospel commission.

“Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet... And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room... These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.” Acts 1:12-14
